through January 31, 2025 (“Fee Application”) seeking approval of fees in the amount of $40,940.00 and the reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $221.90, submits its final report.

BACKGROUND

1. In performance of audit procedures and in preparation of this report designed to quantify and present factual data relevant to the requested fees, disbursements and expenses contained herein, DFR reviewed the monthly fee statement and the Application, including each of the billing and expense entries listed in the exhibits to the monthly statement, for compliance with 11 U.S.C. § 330, Rule 2016-2 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, as amended February 1, 2025 (“Local Rules”), the United States Trustee Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330, issued June 11, 2013 (“Guidelines”).
2. DFR did not prepare informal memos related to monthly fee applications of the Firm. We included our questions and issues in an initial report and this final report. We have included all responses and any recommended resolutions in this final report.

DISCUSSION

3. For the compensation period of December 19, 2024 through January 31, 2025 the Firm submitted monthly fee applications in the amount of $40,940.00 as actual, reasonable and necessary fees and for expense reimbursement of $221.90. We calculated that for the Fee Application period $808.00 related to fee application preparation.

4. We deem it generally acceptable to have a maximum of 3% of total time charged in preparing fee applications. For Firms with more limited involvement, we consider an alternative standard of less than $50,000 in total spent on preparing fee applications. We apply these guidelines on a cumulative basis. We evaluate these charges with consideration to the length of time of the case and the practice experience of the firm. In each application we review every entry for substance and to determine the correct allocation without regard for materiality. We noted that cumulatively through this period the Firm has charged $808.00 related to fee applications on a cumulative basis and we have calculated that 2.0% of the fees billed related to fee applications on a cumulative basis. We do not have an objection to the amount of fees charged for fee application preparation in this fee application based upon our review and procedures and we deem the amount to be reasonable.
5. Pursuant to the Guidelines, administrative or general costs incident to the operation of the applicant's office and not particularly attributable to an individual client or case are not reimbursable. We noted entries that seemed to reflect administrative activity that would not be charged to the estate such as final conflicts process. We requested and the Firm confirmed that these were for required retention disclosures and did not represent unnecessary activity. Because there is no recommendation for a reduction in fees for these entries, no exhibit has been included.
6. Our procedures applied to the monthly fee applications identified an entry that when recalculated, did not equal the amount of the time charged. Since this represents a small underbilling we have no recommendation for adjustment of fees.

7. Our review and procedures applied to the monthly fee statements and the applications, including each of the billing entries listed in the exhibits to the monthly statements did not disclose any other material issues or questions.

CONCLUSION

8. Regarding the application and the fees and expenses discussed in the previous sections, DFR submits its final report for the First Monthly Fee Application Request of Ashby & Geddes, P.A. for compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses as Delaware Special Counsel to Michael J. Wartell, in his capacity as Independent Director for the compensation period from December 19, 2024 through January 31, 2025 and we recommend the approval of the fees of $40,940.00 and reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $221.90.

Respectfully submitted,
